In flight with American Airlines 10:00 p. m. , 27th April 1949 Dear Stephanie, I hardly know where to begin. I am on a monstrous machine that is taking me thousands of miles away from you. Did you stay to see us take off After I left you I had to wait in the passengers lounge for nearly an hour, and I never spent a more miserable hour in my life! Parting may be sweet sorrow, but I don't mean to be parted from you again. The next time I hold you in my arms you won't get away-ever! Merstham, 29th April 1949 Dear Paul, I wonder where you are now. I suppose still traveling ever farther away from me. You know, I just didn't get used to the idea that you were going-even right at the end when you kissed me goodbye, I just felt numb. When I went back to the field alone to wait, the truth came over me and I felt so miserable. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
