Guns were procured, but only one powder-flask was attainable, and it was to be a partnership concern. For this purpose, it was large enough in all conscience, being an old-fashioned horn bound with brass, and capable of holding a pound of powder. We filled it to the top. At a short distance from the house, a snipe sprang unexpectedly--I killed it--and in attempting to reload, the charge ignited in the barrel, and the horn blew up in my hand. My clothes were reduced to tinder, my hat scorched, my hair and eyebrows burned off, but excepting a slight cut in my hand, otherwise I was perfectly uninjured. Not a fragment of the flask, but one shattered piece of horn, could be found upon the unbroken surface of the snow. H, who was about one hundred yards distant from me,...
