Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Journal of the Life, Religious Exercises, and Travels in the Work of the Ministry of Rufus Hall, 1840 It hath been on my mind, at many times, to leave some memorandums of the gracious dealings of the Lord with my soul; and notwithstanding my gifts and talents are not very large, and my services in life have not been very great, as I conceive, yet there may something be picked out of my journal that may be of use, at least to the rising generation. I was born in the town of Exeter, Rhode Island, the 8th of the 6th month, 1744, of honest parents, Samuel and Dinah Hall, who were members of the society of Friends. They educated me, I suppose, in as good a manner as they were capable of - taking care to give me a little school learning, so that I can read tolerably well, and write and cypher sufficient for common business; at least I make it do. They took care also to get me to meetings often, and it had some good effect on me when very young; for I well remember the awful veneration I sometimes felt over my mind when sitting in those meetings; although I understood it not then, yet I believe there was something good at work in me at that early period of life.
