Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Three related stories, anchored in one room of Istanbul s famous Pera Palas hotel, weave through three timelines that span the 20th century. In 1920, an English writer arrives at The Queen of Cities, and becomes a guest at a royal harem. In 1950, a young American teacher falls in love with an idealistic and charming Turk. In 1995, a gay expatriate comes home to introduce his American lover to his troubled family. A gateway between east and west, Islam and Christianity, past and present, the hotel stands as a bridge between cultures. Hugely ambitious, PERA PALAS engages the mind and grips the emotions. Its three intertwined stories embrace no less than the destiny of a nation, the liberation of women and the fate of lovers. PERA PALAS pulses with passion and questing intelligence. - The New York Times.
