Amendments have been allowed as to the date of the return. E. SUFFICIENCY or RETURN. ---1. In Genera. l. --a. The Return Must Be Full and Intelligible. --A return must be intelligible; if its purport cannot be determined by applying it to the actual state of defendants property, the court will not attempt to aid it by conjecture. A full return should be made, stating correctly the names of the parties, the court to which the process is returnable, what property has been attached under the writ, the date on which the levy Where the return shows substituted service made one day before the return day of the writ, this is a fatal defect, as the statute only allows substituted service when defendant cannot be found.
