Trainee and early career teachers often struggle to see the opportunities for meaningful writing in the curriculum. With the new curriculum being implemented since September 2014, there is an opportunity to respond more imaginatively to the way they approach and teach writing. So, how do they find examples of lessons that encourage purposeful writing across all curriculum areas? This book provides exemplar lessons alongside a detailed exploration of what makes them good, the theory behind them in order to consider the teaching of writing critically and envisage how they can shape lessons for their own teaching.
